Justice	JUS23-052	2023-06-12	Through an Access to Information request to Newfoundland and Labrador, (the applicant has) documents that show that the province of Newfoundland and Labrador did not have the capacity in French in its Department of Justice to analyze, comment on, or adopt the French versions of the Canadian Constitution that federal Deputy Minister of Justice Mary Dawson circulated to the Provinces in 1997 under section 55 of the Constitution Act, 1982. Newfoundland and Labrador asked for New Brunswick's help, as the province itself did not have the necessary capacity in French. Please provide any briefing notes, memoranda, letters, correspondence, emails, reports on Newfoundland and Labrador's difficulties in 1997. (Manitoba knew. Manitoba was aware.)	Access Granted in Part	2023-08-24
Justice	JUS23-053	2023-06-12	Any briefing notes, memoranda, letters, correspondence, emails, reports presenting a summary or synthesis or description of the state of affairs in Manitoba at the same time, in terms of its own provincial capacity to analyze, comment on, or adopt legislation presented in 1997. Justice	JUS23-054	2023-06-12	All documents relating to the sharing of resources between jurisdictions (federal, provincial and territorial), mutual assistance, cooperation, the pooling of expertise, the transfer of funds or the loan of personnel / talents so that the provinces could carry out their duties in 1997 under section 55 of the Constitution Act, 1982. For instance, we know that New Brunswick played a role with the provinces of Atlantic Canada (the Maritime provinces). Did Manitoba also request or receive assistance from other provinces? This could be in the form of briefing notes, memos, letters, correspondence, emails, reports, agreements, contracts, or other forms. Manitoba may or may not have been part of the plans / strategies and agreements – as long as Manitoba knew about, was aware of, and had copies of these exchanges, deliberations and decisions. The federal government may or may not have been involved. Pay special attention to any federal involvement in this regard. (E.g., whether Manitoba applied for or received federal assistance, or Manitoba received / accepted / rejected federal offers, etc.).	Access Denied - No Records	2023-08-24
